

Fellows and Honorary Membership Awards: Nomination form and guidance notes

Fellows Award: Guidance Notes for Nominators

If you would like to nominate an individual for the Fellows Award here are some guidance notes to help you make your nomination and complete the nomination form.

1. Eligible nominees

Nominees eligible for a Fellows Award are current BSACI members who have at least 20 years of continuous membership. Members must be nominated by a current BSACI member and cannot self-nominate.

2. Completing the nomination form

To nominate an individual, please complete a nomination form and email it to melanie@bsaci.org by the end of May each year. Incomplete forms will not be considered.

Case for nomination – please submit a maximum of 500 words outlining why you think the nominee deserves to be awarded a BSACI Fellowship.

3. Confidentiality

All the information provided about a nominee will be treated in the strictest confidence. If your nominee is successful, the BSACI will contact the nominee prior to using their profile for any news material.

4. Evaluation criteria

The Trustees will assess nominees for evidence demonstrating significant impact made in allergy and clinical immunology and a sustained contribution to BSACI.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

a. Efforts that have:

- (i) assisted the BSACI as a professional body to achieve its objectives
- (ii) made a direct contribution to improving the working lives of professionals in allergy or clinical immunology related fields and their care of patients.

b. Contributions that have helped allergy and clinical immunology departments achieve better outcomes for patients or staff.

c. A personal impact which differs from that of any team or organisation where they work, and where their outputs go beyond those of any role they are employed to play.

5. Acknowledgement of nominations

You will receive an email from melanie@bsaci.org to confirm that your nomination has been received.

6. Changes to information submitted

Once you have submitted a nomination you will not be able to make any further changes to the information you have already submitted.

7. Successful nominations

Successful Fellows will be presented with this honour at the BSACI Annual Conference in the 'Celebrating Excellent in Allergy Care & Research' session. A short citation will be read and the Fellow will be presented with a pin badge and framed certification. The newly appointed Fellow will be invited as a guest to the President's dinner the year of being awarded and will be listed on the BSACI website on the Fellows 'Wall of Honour'. They will also receive free lifelong society membership.

Only one person per year will be granted BSACI Fellow.

8. Feedback

Unfortunately, we are unable to provide individual feedback on nominations.

9. Diversity

The BSACI is committed to working towards a workforce that reflects the diversity of society.

10. Data

Personal data provided on the nomination form may be held and processed by the BSACI. A summary of BSACI's privacy policy is available online.

11. Further enquiries

If you have any questions about the Fellows Award, please contact the BSACI's Membership Officer, Melanie Parrienen:

Telephone: 020 7501 3910

Email: melanie@bsaci.org

Honorary Membership: Guidance Notes for Nominators

If you would like to nominate an individual for Honorary Membership here are some guidance notes to help you make your nomination and complete the nomination form.

1. Eligible nominees

Honorary Membership is the highest honour the BSACI can bestow, recognising exceptional contributions at international level to the advancement of allergy & clinical immunology.

Honorary Membership is given to those who have never been a BSACI member. Nominees must be nominated by a BSACI member and cannot self-nominate.

2. Completing the nomination form

To nominate an individual, you will need to fill in a nomination form. Once completed, email it to melanie@bsaci.org

Case for nomination – please submit a maximum of 500 words outlining why you think the nominee deserves to be awarded Honorary Membership of BSACI.

3. Confidentiality

All the information provided about a nominee will be treated in the strictest confidence. If your nominee is successful, the BSACI will contact the nominee prior to using their profile for any news material.

4. Evaluation criteria

The Trustees will assess nominees whose work shows evidence of having made a significant or sustained contribution to the international field of allergy and clinical immunology.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

- a. Contributions that have helped allergy and clinical immunology services achieve better outcomes for patients or staff.
- b. A personal impact which differs from those of any team or organisation where they work and where their outputs go beyond those of any role they are employed to play.
- c. Exceptional contributions at international level to influence policy and practice.
- d. Contributions to allergy and immunology which have directly impacted BSACI as a professional body in achieving its objectives or which have made a direct contribution to improving the working lives of professionals in allergy or clinical immunology related fields and their care of patients.

5. Acknowledgement of nominations

You will receive an email from melanie@bsaci.org to confirm that your nomination has been received.

6. Changes to information submitted

Once you have submitted a nomination you will not be able to make any further changes to the information you have already submitted.

7. Successful nominations

Honorary Members will be given a certificate signed by the BSACI President and will be added to the Honorary Members 'Wall of Honour'. They will be granted free lifelong membership of the society. The names of those awarded Honorary membership (one per year) will be read out at the BSACI Annual Conference' in the 'Celebrating Excellent in Allergy Care & Research' session.

8. Feedback

Unfortunately, we are unable to provide individual feedback on nominations.

9. Diversity

The BSACI is committed to working towards a workforce that reflects the diversity of society.

10. Data

Personal data provided on the nomination form may be held and processed by the BSACI. A summary of BSACI's privacy policy is available online.

11. Further enquiries

If you have any questions about the Honorary Membership Awards please contact the BSACI's Membership Officer, Melanie Parrienen:

Telephone: 020 7501 3910

Email: melanie@bsaci.org

Nomination form

Name of Award
Nominator's Name
Nominator's Email
Nominator's BSACI Membership no.
Nominee's Name
Nominee's Email

Case for Nomination

Please outline in no more than 500 words, why you are nominating the person above. You should evidence the unique and original contribution the nominee has made to the advancement of Allergy and Clinical Immunology. In this summary of achievements, you should also demonstrate the reach of the nominee's work and the extent to which their work and expertise are recognised by others working in the same field.

Signature (electronic accepted)

Date:

Completed forms should be emailed directly to melanie@bsaci.org