

Editor – Allergy Update

Allergy Update is the official newsletter of BSACI and we publish two issues each year. The position of Editor is for two years.

The Editor will be responsible for communicating news articles to the membership which are current, relevant and of importance. The Editor will also work closely with the BSACI team and designer on the publication. While the following list is not exhaustive, the Editor's main responsibilities include the following: keeping up to date with current news as it develops which would impact the membership; source content and topics for each issue; following up on correspondence to ensure articles and images are sent in on time; edit contributions as appropriate; work with the BSACI team and newsletter designer on the layout through to sign off.

During the tenure the post holder will get to know many aspects of the Society and will be exposed to a wide range of experts whose influence and knowledge will be of huge benefit in your role.

If you would like to apply, please send Louise@bsaci.org your CV together with a statement (maximum 1 side of A4) outlining your experience in relation to the role by 9am on Thursday 2nd May 2024.
